Rationale

- (1) SMBC Group is a major diversified financial group that includes Sumitomo Mitsui Banking Corporation ("SMBC"), SMBC Nikko Securities Inc. and others. JCR considers that SMBC Group's group creditworthiness is equivalent to "AA," reflecting its solid business base, good asset quality and capital level. The key to the rating is whether SMBC Group can strengthen its earnings power while maintaining an appropriate level of capital relative to risk. JCR will pay attention to the results of the Group's focused initiatives such as creating synergies with Asian financial institutions in which it has invested, strengthening non-interest businesses such as overseas securities operations, and shifting assets to highly profitable products.
- (2) SMBC Group's business foundation is very strong. The Group has Japan's leading group companies in a wide range of areas, including credit cards, consumer finance, leasing, in addition to banking and securities businesses, and in particular boasts one of the top market positions in Japan for credit cards and consumer finance. To further strengthen its retail customer base, SMBC Group is also pursuing a strategy of forming economic zone through digitization and alliances with outside companies. In its overseas business, SMBC Group has invested in banks and non-banks in Indonesia, India, Vietnam, and the Philippines to build franchises, and is working to capture high economic growth in Asia. SMBC Group is also strengthening the foundation of its global CIB business through measures such as a capital and business alliance with Jefferies Financial Group Inc., a major U.S. securities firm. SMBC Group is reviewing its business portfolio according to profitability and growth potential, and is accelerating reduction of unprofitable assets while strengthening risk-taking in its global CIB business and highly profitable products.
- (3) Profit level has remained steady. Although SMBC Group's profitability relative to risk-weighted assets and total assets is not high, it is still superior to other megabank groups. In the fiscal year ended March 2023 (FY2022), the retail division's profit, mainly in the asset management business, declined year-on-year, but this was offset by other divisions' profit growth, resulting in an increase in consolidated net business income before transfer to general allowance for loan losses. While foreign exchange effects boosted profit, other factors contributing to the profit increase included improved loan margins, particularly for foreign currency-denominated loans, and favorable sales and trading operations that took advantage of market fluctuations. Despite large volatility in the financial markets, profit in the market division has remained relatively stable. Even in the retail division, where profit declined, earnings from payment-related and consumer finance operations have recovered from the decline under the COVID-19 pandemic.

- (4) Soundness of assets has been maintained. SMBC's non-performing loans ratio under the Financial Reconstruction Act and the ratio of claims classified as assets requiring caution or below this category are extremely low. While it should be noted that SMBC Group is exposed to a certain amount of largelot credit risk, the majority of the assets are receivables from companies with high credit ratings, and the borrowers are diversified in terms of industries. The Group's credit costs since FY2019 have been slightly higher than in previous years, but this is due in large part to forward-looking provisions for risks such as the COVID-19 pandemic and Russia-related exposures. There are no particular problems with market risks related to interest rate and stock price fluctuations relative to capital.
- (5) SMBC Group's capital is at a sufficiently large level relative to risks. The adjusted Tier 1 ratio, which is Tier 1 capital less accumulated other comprehensive income and other items, has remained at a reasonable level as AA range. In recent years, SMBC Group has taken a proactive stance toward investment in growth, including investments in overseas financial institutions, and it is expected to continue to use capital for shareholder returns, growth investments, etc. to improve capital efficiency. However, JCR believes that SMBC Group will maintain a capital level commensurate with the rating based on a disciplined capital policy emphasizing soundness. SMBC Group has been steadily reducing its strategic stock holdings, and the balance of such holdings, based on acquisition cost, is not large in relation to its capital. As for liquidity, SMBC Group has a strong yen deposit procurement base, and there are no particular problems with the balance between foreign currency investment and financing.

Issuer: Sumitomo Mitsui Financial Group, Inc.

Sumitomo Mitsui Financial Group, Inc. is the holding company of SMBC Group. JCR has determined that the need to reflect the structural subordination of the holding company in the issuer rating has lowered, and has upgraded the rating by one notch to equal the Group's creditworthiness. The reason for reflecting the structural subordination was that the double leverage ratio had remained relatively high in the past, and JCR believed that the ratio could increase due to large-scale M&As and other factors. However, the double leverage ratio has remained below a certain level over the medium term, and JCR believes that it is unlikely to significantly increase in the future, given the Group's financial management policy and other factors. The additional investment in SMBC Nikko Securities implemented in September 2023 is seen as a factor increasing the double leverage ratio, but its impact is limited.

Issuer: Sumitomo Mitsui Banking Corporation

SMBC is the core commercial bank of SMBC Group. Its issuer rating is at the same level as SMBC Group's creditworthiness in light of factors such as SMBC's position in SMBC Group. The business base is solid and wide for transactions with large corporations, mid-sized corporations, SMEs and individual customers. SMBC continues to play a central role in the midst of diversification of the Group's business, and accounts for the largest share of the Group's total assets and revenues.

The assumptions for the credit ratings and the definitions of the rating symbols are published as "Types of Credit Ratings and Definitions of Rating Symbols" (January 6, 2014) in Information about JCR Ratings on JCR's website (https://www.jcr.co.jp/en/).

Outline of the rating methodology is shown as "JCR's Rating Methodology" (November 7, 2014), "Banks" (October 1, 2021), "Rating Methodology for Financial Groups' Holding Companies and Group Companies" (September 1, 2022) and "Rating Methodology for Financial Institutions' Capital and TLAC Instruments" (April 27, 2017) in Information about JCR Ratings on JCR's website (https://www.jcr.co.jp/en/).

The rating stakeholder participated in the rating process of the aforementioned credit ratings.

A program rating is assigned to evaluate the creditworthiness of a program. The credit standing of an individual note issued under the program may be regarded as the same as that of the rated program. However, JCR does not consider the credit standing of the individual note as the same as that of the program, in the cases where the principal and interest payments of the individual note rely on the credit standing of a third party rather than the issuer of the program and notes (e.g. credit linked notes and exchangeable notes). JCR usually does not assign a rating to the individual note issued under the program, unless the issuer solicits a rating.

Please see the news release. If the credit rating is a private rating, please see the report for private rating.

3 The Main Assumptions and Principles used in Constructing the Procedures and Methodologies used to Determine the Credit Rating as Required by Paragraph (a)(1)(ii)(C) of Rule 17g-7

- The credit rating methodology assumes, in principle, to be applied to assess the likelihood of a given debt payment in light of its issuer's condition and business environment, etc. in the relevant future. There is certain limitation, however, in the time horizon that the rating foresees.
- The credit rating methodology assumes, in principle, that the factors posted in the below are particularly important for such likelihood to be determined, and that the rating determination is made by evaluating each of them not only quantitatively but also employing qualitative analyses.
- A) Business Bases

The likelihood of a given debt payment is highly conditional to its issuer's business bases - how they can be maintained/ expanded into the future and thereby secure earnings and cash flows in adequacy and in a sustainable way.

B) Financial Grounds and Asset Quality

The likelihood of debt payment is highly dependent on the degree of the issuer's indebtedness and loss absorption capacity in terms of equity capital. Also notable is that a financial institution might see a significant loss of financial grounds as a result of changes in value of the assets under its possession.

C) Liquidity Positions

The likelihood of debt payment is highly dependent on the adequacy of the issuer's cash and other sources of repayment (liquidity positions).

D) Related Parties' Status and Stance of Support/ Assistance for the Issuer

The likelihood of debt payment is affected one way or the other by the issuer's related parties such as parent company, subsidiary, guarantor, and the government of the issuer's business domicile, etc. - by their own conditions and/ or position of support/ assistance for the issuer.

JCB

E) Order of Seniority in Debt Payment

The likelihood of debt payment can be different between given debts of the same issuer. The likelihood of debt payment for an individual debt is dependent on the issuer's discretion, and/ or its rank relative to other debts of the same issuer in the order of seniority in principal/ interest payment which is determined by design as financial product or by laws, etc.

- The Potential Limitations of the Credit Rating as Required by Paragraph (a)(1)(ii)(D) of Rule 17g-7
- The credit rating herewith presented by JCR is its summary opinion with regard to the likelihood of given debt payment and hence not necessarily a perfect representation of such likelihood. The credit rating is not intended to estimate the probability of default or the loss on given default, either.
- The objective of the credit rating herewith presented does not include any concerns other than the likelihood of debt payment, such as risks of price changes, market liquidity, etc.
- The credit rating herewith presented is necessary to be reviewed along with possible changes of the issuer of rated objects in its business performance and/ or circumstances which include regulatory environment, and hence subject to possible alteration.
- 5 Information on the Uncertainty of the Credit Rating as Required by Paragraph (a)(1)(ii)(E) of Rule 17g-7

The information used for the determination of credit rating as herewith presented is obtained by JCR from the issuer of rated objects and other sources that JCR trusts in terms of accuracy and reliability but possibly contains errors due to human, non-human or other causes. Consequently, the credit rating determined on the grounds of such information does not constitute, explicitly or implicitly, any representation or warrant of JCR on the information itself or any consequences of its use in terms of accuracy, relevance, timeliness, wholeness, market value, or usefulness for any specific purposes.

- 6 Use of Due Diligence Services of a Third Party in Taking the Rating Action as Required by Paragraph (a)(1)(ii)(F) of Rule 17g-7
 - There is no use of any third-party due diligence service in the determination of the credit rating herewith presented.
- 7 Use of Servicer or Remittance Reports to Conduct Surveillance of the Credit Rating Required by Paragraph (a)(1)(ii)(G) of Rule 17g-7
 - There is no use of any servicer or remittance report to conduct surveillance of the credit rating herewith presented.

9 Overall assessment of the Quality of Information Available and Considered in Determining the Credit Rating as Required by Paragraph (a)(1)(ii)(I) of Rule 17g-7

• JCR holds its basic policies for securing the quality of information as a base of due diligence for the determination of credit ratings. The information used as a base for the determination of credit rating herewith presented satisfies such policies, which include the audit by an independent auditor, the warranty made by the issuer, the publication by the issuer, some independent media or, otherwise, JCR analyst's scrutiny, etc.

Explanation or Measure of the Potential Volatility of the Credit Rating as Required by Paragraph (a)(1)(ii)(K) of Rule 17g-7

A) Business Bases

The credit rating is subject to alteration if there is improvement or deterioration of the issuer's business bases, since its revenue, etc. may improve or deteriorate by the change in its business management policies, clients' preferences, competitive situation, or a technological innovation. The resultant alteration of the credit rating is usually by a notch, with possibility of a few notches if and when the change in the business bases is large.

B) Financial Grounds and Asset Quality

The credit rating is subject to alteration if the issuer increases/ decreases its debt/ capital or vice versa and thereby makes its individual debt payment liability less or more bearable and its loss absorption capacity into the future decreased or increased. Also, the changes in the quality of asset under the issuer's holding may affect the credit rating, since such changes could raise or lower the likelihood of future loss of the issuer's financial grounds. The resultant alteration of the credit rating is usually by a notch, with possibility of a few notches if and when the change in the financial grounds and/ or asset quality is large.

C) Liquidity Positions

The credit rating is subject to alteration if there is a change in the issuer's financial management policy or in the relations with fund procurement sources and the change thereby makes its liquidity positions improve or deteriorate. The resultant alteration of the credit rating is usually by a notch, with possibility of a few notches if and when the change is large.

D) Related Parties' Status and Stance of Support/ Assistance for the Issuer

The credit rating is subject to alteration if there is a change in the issuer's parent company or subsidiary, guarantor or other provider of credit enhancement, or the government of the issuer's business domicile, or other related parties' own conditions and/ or position of support/ assistance for the issuer, and the change thereby makes its business bases, financial grounds and/ or liquidity positions improve or deteriorate, and/ or making the effectiveness of guarantee and other credit enhancement improve or deteriorate. The resultant alteration of the credit rating is usually a notch, with possibility of a few notches if and when the change is large.

E) Order of Seniority in Debt Payment and Non-Payment Forgiven by Contract

The credit rating is subject to alteration if there is a change in the rated debt's status in the order of seniority relative to other debts caused by the improvement/ deterioration of the issuer's financial condition. The resultant alteration of the credit rating is usually a notch, with possibility of a few notches if and when the change is large. Also, in case of the financial products for which non-payment of interest/ principal is contractually permissible, the credit rating is subject to alteration if and when the likelihood of such non-payment is projected to increase or decrease. The resultant alteration of the credit rating could be by a notch but often as much as a few notches.

F) Rise and Fall in General Economy and Markets

The credit rating is subject to alteration if there is a rise/ fall in the general economy and/ or the markets inducing the issuer's revenues/ expenses to increase/ decrease and vice versa, etc. The resultant alteration of the credit rating is usually by a notch, with possibility of a few notches if and when the change is exceptionally large.

G) Various Events

The credit rating is subject to alteration on occurrence of various events, such as change in the issuer's major shareholders, M&A and other organizational change, accident, violation of the law, litigation, legal/ regulatory change, natural disaster, etc., which are unforeseeable at the time when the credit rating is determined, causing a significant change on the issuer's business bases, financial grounds, etc. The resultant alteration of the credit rating could be by a notch but more often than not as much as a few notches.

13 Information on the Sensitivity of the Credit Rating to Assumptions Made as Required by Paragraph (a)(1)(ii)(M) of Rule 17g-7

A) Business Bases

The credit rating herewith presented could be changed if and when the assumptions made at the time of its determination turn out to be inaccurate with regard to the issuer's business bases and powers of earning or cash flow generation, etc. The resultant change of the credit rating is most likely by a notch, as JCR speculates, but possibly as much as a few notches if the development is rapid in improvement or deterioration of the issuer's business bases on some drastic change in the operational environments, etc.

JCB

B) Financial Grounds and Asset Quality

The credit rating herewith presented could be changed if and when the assumptions made at the time of its determination turn out to be inaccurate with regard to the issuer's financial grounds and asset quality. The resultant change of the credit rating is most likely by a notch, as JCR speculates, but possibly as much as a few notches if the development is rapid in improvement or deterioration of the issuer's financial grounds and/ or asset quality on some drastic change in its business bases.

C) Liquidity Risks

The credit rating herewith presented could be changed if and when the assumptions made at the time of its determination turn out to be inaccurate with regard to the issuer's liquidity positions. The resultant change of the credit rating is most likely by a notch, as JCR speculates, but possibly as much as a few notches if the development is rapid in improvement or deterioration of the issuer's liquidity positions on some drastic change in its financial management policy or relations with fund procurement sources, etc.

D) Related Parties' Status and Stance of Support/ Assistance for the Issuer

The credit rating herewith presented could be changed if and when the assumptions made at the time of its determination turn out to be inaccurate with regard to the issuer's parent company or subsidiaries, guarantor or other providers of credit enhancement, the government of the issuer's business domicile or other related parties' status and stance of support/ assistance for the issuer. The resultant change of the credit rating is most likely by a notch, as JCR speculates, but possibly as much as a few notches if there is a major change on the part of related parties, such as replacement, disappearance, some drastic improvement/ deterioration of financial grounds/ balances, etc.

E) Order of Seniority in Debt Payment and Non-Payment Forgiven by Contract

The credit rating herewith presented could be changed if and when the assumptions made at the time of its determination turn out to be inaccurate with regard to the order of seniority in repayment of interests and principal. JCR assumes the resultant change of the credit rating is most likely by a notch. The change could be as much as a few notches if the issuer's financial structure differs so much and thereby the balance between debts shifted so greatly. Rating change is also possible in case of the financial products for which non-payment of interest/ principal is contractually permissible, if and when the assumptions made at the time of its determination turns out to be inaccurate. The change of the credit rating is assumed to be by a notch but often as much as a few notches.
