

Visit of the Prof. YETGİN, President of JCR Eurasia Rating An Affiliated Rating Agencies of the Republic of Turkey and ZOOM Seminar on the Economy of Turkey

Prof. FEYZULLAR YETGİN, President and Vice Chairman of JCR Eurasia Rating, a rating agency in the Republic of Turkey, visited Japan Credit Rating Agency Ltd (JCR). Prof. YETGIN met with JCR President Takagi to exchange views to further strengthen cooperation between the two parties. On August 9, he participated as a speaker in a seminar titled "Current Status and Outlook of the Turkish Economy," which was held by JCR via ZOOM.

The seminar focused on trends in the Turkish economy, a topic of growing interest among Japanese investors. Following a presentation on the current state of the Turkish economy by the company's Chief Economist, Mr. ÖZGÜR FUAD ENGİN, there was a lively exchange of views on the impact of the Ukraine conflict, the state of inflation, the government's response and the future outlook.

JCR will cooperate with JCR Eurasia Ratings and other rating agencies in emerging countries to provide high-quality analysis of issuers in emerging countries that are seeking financing from Japan, utilizing the perspectives of local rating agencies to provide information useful to Japanese investors in their overseas investments and loans. JCR will continue to promote cooperation with rating agencies in foreign countries in order to be the most useful rating agency for Japanese investors and companies.
