

JCR Is Granted Certification for a Credit Rating Agency under U.K. Credit Rating Agency Regulations

Japan Credit Rating Agency, Ltd. (JCR) is granted certification* for a credit rating agency under the U.K. regulations on credit rating agencies on January 1, 2021.

Accordingly, JCR's ratings have become able to be used by banks, etc. in the U.K. for regulatory purposes.

In addition, JCR has already been officially recognized as an eligible External Credit Assessment Institution (eligible ECAI) within the EU. Certified by the U.K. this time, JCR's status as an eligible ECAI in the U.K. shall also be maintained.

JCR shall, going forward, continue to further provide a wider range of rating information to issuers, investors and other market participants, and thereby perform a positive role for development of financial markets.

*The certification approves to use credit ratings that are issued by a credit rating agency in any country other than the U.K. and that are related to entities and financial instruments in any country other than the U.K., in the U.K. for regulatory purposes.

Information herein has been obtained by JCR from the issuers and other sources believed to be accurate and reliable. However, because of the possibility of human or mechanical error as well as other factors, JCR makes no representation or warranty, express or implied, as to accuracy, results, adequacy, timeliness, completeness or merchantability, or fitness for any particular purpose, with respect to any such information, and is not responsible for any errors or omissions, or for results obtained from the use of such information. Under no circumstances will JCR be liable for any special, indirect, incidental or consequential damages of any kind caused by the use of any such information, including but not limited to, lost opportunity or lost money, whether in contract, tort, strict liability or otherwise, and whether such damages are foreseeable or unforeseeable. JCR's ratings and credit assessments are statements of JCR's current and comprehensive opinion regarding redemption possibility, etc. of financial obligations assumed by the issuers or financial products, and not statements of opinion regarding any risk other than credit risk, such as market liquidity risk or price fluctuation risk. JCR's ratings and credit assessments are statements of opinion, and not statements of fact as to credit risk decisions or recommendations regarding decisions to purchase, sell or hold any securities such as individual bonds or commercial paper. The ratings and credit assessments may be changed, suspended or withdrawn as a result of changes in or unavailability of information as well as other factors. JCR receives a rating fee paid by issuers for conducting rating services in principle. JCR retains all rights pertaining to this document, including JCR's rating data. Any reproduction, adaptation, alteration, etc. of this document, including such rating data, is prohibited, whether or not wholly or partly, without prior consent of JCR.

JCR is registered as a "Nationally Recognized Statistical Rating Organization" with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission with respect to the following four classes. (1) Financial institutions, brokers and dealers, (2) Insurance Companies, (3) Corporate Issuers, (4) Issuers of government securities, municipal securities and foreign government securities.

JCR publishes its press releases regarding the rating actions both in Japanese and in English on the same day. In case that it takes time to translate rating rationale, JCR may publicize the summary version, which will be replaced by the full translated version within three business days. (Regarding Structured Finance products, JCR only publicize the summary version in English.)
