Knowledge Sharing at ACRAA's Joint Training

On October 16, 2015, a representative of Japan Credit Rating Agency, Ltd. (JCR) participated in ACRAA's annual joint training session entitled "Financing and rating infrastructure - Credit issues and risk management" where JCR's knowledge on the credit analysis of infrastructure projects, citing the case of project financing to Haneda Airport, was shared with the participants.

As the leading credit rating agency with more than 60% of rating coverage in Japan, JCR attempts to share the experiences and knowledge on the development of financial markets and the roles of credit ratings in Japan so as to develop the financial markets in emerging market countries. For details, please check "Global Activities" on our website.

ACRAA, the Association of Credit Rating Agencies in Asia, was established in 2001 to promote the rating quality of local credit rating agencies in Asia through mutual cooperation. JCR led the establishment of ACRAA and, since then, has closely communicated with the member CRAs.
